

4.
Hall Mills - 105.116 - correspondence - 1923. 1.6 - GS-FH come after. That she had been succesfull in entizing some of her other corraberating witness in the same manner and considered it should be made known

Now Mrs Hall I leave this entirely to your judgment Now a woman in your financial standing and must admit the benefit you derived, threw my credence, and no doubt the case has cost you a considerable amount, which helped very little I believe understand as I.

Middle bush. N. J.
Jan 6, 1923.
~~for id~~ D 38
State 5163
Nov 26/26 JPD Hurd

Mrs Steven Hall.

Dear Madam

I thought I would drop you a line, in reference to the Grand Jury investigation on your case, as you undoubtedly know I am a business man and a business which requires my personal presence at all time.

Now as you know the time it took up and from begining to the day I appeared before Grand jury, practically took up an entire week, of